

NO-SHOWS COST THE NHS £1.5M

Report by Heather Large

PATIENTS failed to turn up to nearly 15,000 appointments at Dudley's hospitals in just six months – costing the NHS £1.5 million.

Hundreds of hours of clinic time were lost due to people missing their out-patient appointments between January and June this year.

Paula Clark, chief executive of The Dudley Group NHS Foundation Trust, which runs Russells Hall Hospital and the Guest Outpatient Centre, both in Dudley, and Corbett Outpatient Centre in Stourbridge, said a total of 14,817 sessions were missed.

She is now urging patients to warn hospital staff if they can't make it, so someone else can have the slot.

Every time a patient fails to show, it costs the hospital trust an average of around £70. This includes the staffing resource wasted and the cost of additional letters and time taken to reschedule appointments.

Ms Clark said: "When a patient doesn't attend on the day, it's too late to offer their slot to somebody else. If patients can't attend their appointment, it's really important that they let us know so we can reschedule for another time and offer the appointment to somebody else who needs it."

"To help reduce the number of DNAs (did not attend) we have introduced a text message reminder service which reminds patients a few days before they are due to have an appointment."

The free text reminders contain the date and time of the appointment as well as the location and name of the clinician that the patient is due to see. The hospital trust has previously posted reminder messages on its website, urging people to contact staff if they are unable to attend.

Waste

Last year, between January 1 and December 31, a total of 40,719 appointments were missed by patients.

In July, health secretary Jeremy Hunt said missed hospital appointments cost the taxpayer £750m and missed GP appointments cost £162m. It's estimated 6.9 million slots go to waste because people do not turn up.

Mr Hunt said patients who miss appointments should be told how much they have cost the NHS. He also wants to display the cost of prescription medicines on packets in a bid to reduce medicine waste.

The bill at Dudley comes as bosses work to balance the books in the wake of Government funding cuts. Bosses have been reviewing the positions of temporary staff, those on fixed-term contracts, and bank and agency workers. They have also been looking at reducing overtime and recruitment to non-clinical vacancies to claw back costs.

HUNDREDS JOIN IN BATTLE OF BRITAIN TRIBUTE

Brian Lee from the Worcestershire Regimental Association lays a wreath during the Battle of Britain service at Dudley Cenotaph

HUNDREDS paid solemn tribute to those who fought in the Battle of Britain at a remembrance parade and service in Dudley.

This year marks the 75th anniversary of the fight in the skies above Britain in the Second World War that effectively halted Nazi Germany's invasion of Britain by defeating the Luftwaffe.

With the anniversary being marked across the country, Dudley's annual Battle of Britain thanksgiving commemoration took on greater significance on Sunday.

Veterans, RAF members and the Air Training Corps paraded ahead of the service at St Thomas and St Luke Church, also known as Top Church, in High Street.

Around 130 Air Cadets marched through the town creating a spectacle for hundreds of people lining the streets and attending the services.

The cadets came from eight squadrons in the Black Country including Stourbridge, Halesowen and West Bromwich.

The service was held in the church before the cadets led a parade back through the town to take a salute from dignitaries on the steps of Dudley Council House. Cadets then lined up in front of Dudley's cenotaph before the Last Post signalled a two minute silence and wreath laying ceremony.

Among speakers was John Deane, aged 78, of Maygrove Road, Kingswinford, who joined the RAF in 1955, serving in Iraq and Cyprus. He now works with Air Training Corps inspiring young people. He is also member of the Dudley branch of the RAF Association.

"I'm proud to be here and see so many people come out to take part in the event," he said.

TRAFFIC

Short-cut danger gap is closed up

A CUT-THROUGH on a busy road in Halesowen is being closed off during a road-works project.

Highways engineers are working to shut the gap in the central reservation in Kent Road near the Co-op supermarket. Councillors claim the junction needed closing to avoid there being an accident.

Halesowen's Councillor Hilary Bills said: "We are closing off a gap in the central reservation at Kent Road following complaints about motorists driving along the wrong side of the road as a shortcut to reach a new supermarket."

BANK

HSBC decides to shut down branch

A BRANCH of HSBC will close in December after a 'significant fall' in the number of people using it.

The Brierley Hill branch, in High Street, will close its doors for the final time on December 4. Officials said they were working with the five staff to find them roles at other branches.

Spokesman Sorrel Beynon said: "Unfortunately use of the Brierley Hill branch has fallen significantly over the past few years and we have taken the difficult decision to close it."

PLANNING

Campaigners' joy as pub is saved

CAMPAIGNERS battling to stop a pub being replaced by a convenience store have claimed victory after the scheme was thrown out.

New River Retail had proposed to tear down the Maypole Inn, in Halesowen, and build a Co-Op.

Members of Dudley Council's development control committee decided the pub was well used by the community and too close to existing outlets to let the plan go ahead.

But New River Retail said they believed grounds given for refusing the scheme would not stand up on appeal.

Extra patrols due to drugs concern

DRUG pushers operating near shops and homes are causing distress to families living nearby, prompting police action.

As a result, plans to install CCTV in the Shell Corner area have been put forward.

Ward councillors have been working with police on ways to tackle the issue. Officers have stepped up patrols since reports came in of alleged criminality and anti-social behaviour.

Shell Corner Partnership community group have been working to bring improvements to the area.

Councillor Stuart Henley said: "There is an issue of drugs that goes on day and night in the area and the shop keepers and directors of businesses passed this information on to me.

Suspicious

"I have emailed the local sergeant to look in to the issue and I have contacted someone at the council about getting CCTV installed in the area to try and catch any anti-social behaviour or drug issues going on."

speare urged people to contact police if they spot any suspicious activity in the area.

"Due to the members of the public and councillors reporting and raising issues with the police, this has allowed them to respond to concerns with increased manpower," she said.

Councillor Hilary Bills, a ward representative and Dudley Council cabinet member, added: "Our meetings are always well attended, which is a testament to this good relationship."

"The police take residents' issues seriously and always act on them."

"During these austere times, when police resources are dwindling, it is important that the community becomes more active in reporting worrying activity to the police."

Halesowen South Neighbourhood Sergeant Debra Rowbotham said: "The local community has complained about anti-social behaviour in and around the Shell Corner area. This is causing distress to residents who are worried about the impact on the community. We are increasing patrols and working with partner agencies to tackle the problem."

Two out of three pub schemes are rejected

CAMPAIGNERS have claimed a victory after two controversial plans for supermarkets to be built on pub sites were thrown out by planners.

Residents have been battling proposals by New River Retail to tear down the Maypole Inn, Halesowen, and replace it with a Co-Operative convenience store. They have also fought plans for a store on the car park of the Ashwood Inn, Wordsley.

The public gallery at Dudley Council's development control committee was filled with cheers as both schemes were rejected on Monday. A similar plan to build a Co-Op store on the car park at The Crown, in Netherton, was approved after councillors received only four letters of objection.

New River Retail are now considering their next step. Defiant campaigners said they were ready to continue the battle. New River Retail has submitted plans at several pubs across the Black Country after brewery Marston's sold 202 pubs in a £90 million deal.

Demolish

The plan to demolish the Maypole was discussed by the planning committee following a visit to the site. Chairman Councillor Qadar Zada said he could see no planning grounds to refuse the proposal. Councillors disagreed. Councillor Colin Elcock said: "This is a great pub and we should take into consideration people do not want to lose it." The Bassnag Road pub has been listed as an 'asset of community value'. Members were told this carried no weight in planning terms.

But councillors refused on the grounds the pub was well used by the community and too close to existing retail outlets.

Councillors next discussed plans for the Ashwood Inn, in Sandringham Road. While the pub would be retained there were concerns over the loss of car parking spaces and traffic congestion. Councillor Paul Brothwood said: "The residents of Wordsley have made it absolutely clear they do not support this application."

Mr Martin Hughes, spokesman for New River Retail, said: "We have heard the grounds given for refusal and believe these will not be sustained at appeal."

Poundland founder opens charity

Poundland founder Steve Smith, centre, with charity bosses Karen Muller and Steve Smith with some of the items

SMITH paid a visit on Saturday. Mr Smith, originally from Willenhall, said: "It was an absolute honour to be asked to open the charity."

Mr Smith was invited along to Discover U, at Unit 20 on Delph Road, Brierley Hill. The charity offers an all new support programme for people with learning disabilities. The base covers 15,000 sq ft and runs a four day work programme specialising in the making and design of homeware.

Former Poundland boss Mr

Smith said: "It was amazing talking to the parents, who were saying that before the programme some of their children were finding it hard to get up in the morning but now they are happy and full of life."

Mr Smith hopes to find more funding for those with learning disabilities in the local area.

He added: "It's about getting more people involved in charities like this in the local area, and most importantly helping them get on a road to a brighter future."

Owners Karen Muller and the VIP's namesake Steve Smith came up with the initiative after being made redundant. Ms Muller added: "We were based in Lye and when our other programme closed it was devastating for those who attended."

"We knew that we needed to continue with the hard work but at new premises."

Past mayor hands more than £33k to charities

A FORMER Mayor of Dudley presented more than £33,000 to two charities at a special civic reception.

Councillor Margaret Aston, who was mayor of the borough from 2014 to 2015, raised £33,054 for Guide Dogs and Action Heart charities.

Representatives from both charities visited the Mayor's Parlour to each receive £16,527 at a reception hosted by the current Mayor Councillor Steve Waltho.

Councillor Aston said: "It was a real privilege to spend the year raising money for these two worthy causes. I was overwhelmed with the generosity of the people of the borough."

She added: "I hope this money will go a long way to help these two charities with their work."

Among events held for the charities during her year in office were council staff football and cricket matches.

Mayor of Dudley Councillor Waltho, said: "The role of the Mayor is a fabulous privilege because it gives you the opportunity to work with community groups and volunteers and help raise money for charity. I hope people will support my five charities in the same way they have supported Councillor Aston's so generously."

The charities that the current mayor is raising funds for include The Hope Centre, Halesowen; The What Centre, Stourbridge; More Mascots Please, Brierley Hill; The Georgina Unit at Russells Hall Hospital; and the West Midlands branch of Lupus UK.

Labour hold seat at by-election

LABOUR have held on to a seat in a Sandwell Council by-election which was prompted by the death of a councillor.

Danny Millard has been elected to the seat in Blackheath ward with 915 votes. He takes the seat previously held by Malcolm Bridge, who died in June.

Mr Millard beat Tory Shirley Ching (544 votes) into second place. UKIP's Ian Keeling was third with 287 and Green candidate Ben Groom was fourth. Turnout was just 19.3 per cent.

Mr Bridges had been elected to the ward in 2010 and had previously represented Bristnall, Sandwell leader Councillor Darren Cooper said: "This was a fantastic result for Labour, particularly when you consider that we have fought this by-election in the middle of a national leadership election."

Good beer award for stadium club

STOURBRIDGE and Halesowen branch of the Campaign for Real Ale presented its annual club of the year award to Halesowen Athletic and Cycling Club in Manor Way. The club at Manor Abbey Stadium re-opened in July following a £180,000 revamp.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Textile artist to talk on geology

A RETIRED Halesowen College lecturer will be giving a talk on geology in textile art.

Georgia Jacobs, who taught geography and geology, will be speaking at Severn Valley Country Park at Alveley, near Bridgnorth, on October 15 from 7.30pm. Centre manager Susie Comaish said: "The country park is the perfect setting for this talk. The Severn Valley was carved out during the last Ice Age and is filled with distinctive geological features."

Tickets are £3 adults and £2 children. Book on 01746 781192.

New homes given officers' backing

PLANS for more than 100 homes on the site of a former high school in Rowley Regis have been backed.

Redrow has revealed proposals for the site of St Michael's CE High School in Throne Road. Sandwell Council officers are recommending the scheme is approved at a meeting this week. The buildings have been empty since 2011 when the school moved.

The developer wants to build an estate of 124 properties. Since the school, also known as St Michael's Business Enterprise College, closed it has been targeted by vandals.

Conference on services for elderly

OLDER residents in Dudley are invited to attend the annual conference to find out more about services available in the borough.

It will take place at Brierley Hill Civic Hall on October 1. The conference will run from 9.30am until 3.30pm.

Refreshments, including lunch, will be provided and travel costs will be reimbursed for any older person attending. To register contact Michelle Raan at Age UK Dudley on (01384) 354508.

Cycle route earmarked for dual-carriageway

A £130,000 cycle route is to be created along a busy main road to stop people riding bikes on the narrow pavement.

Sandwell Council is set to agree the scheme for the A4123 New Birmingham Road, Tividale, at a meeting next week. A section of grass verge between Hill Road and Lower City Road will be converted into the new cycle route under the plans. Officers say as the New Birmingham Road is a 40mph dual-carriageway currently cyclists feel safer using the footpath.

Crackdown on crime

A SIX-WEEK crackdown on crime and anti-social behaviour in Sandwell will be launched at the end of the month.

The Safer 6 campaign aims to cut crime in the borough as the nights draw in.

Police will step up patrols and there will also be rogue trader crackdowns.

Traders in a £25,000 bid to improve town centre

TRADERS want to raise £25,000 to fund a new scheme aimed at boosting business in Halesowen.

More attractive public areas by shops, improved security and regular attractions and events are among the plans in the pipeline.

Halesowen Chamber of Trade wants to have the town designated as a Business Improvement District (BID).

The BID scheme will see firms join forces to create a single company, with each member paying a levy.

Members will then get to decide how the money is spent on improvements, which it hopes would lead to more footfall.

The chamber needs at least £25,000 to market the BID, which businesses have to vote on to accept.

BID representative on the chamber, Barry Wheeler, said they hoped the scheme would garner support.

"Hopefully we would see new businesses come to the town and existing shops and traders want to stay," he said. "It will help to improve the experience for shoppers coming into Halesowen."

Once the initial sum is raised further talks will be held with Dudley Council officials to develop the scheme.

It is hoped that between £75,000 and almost £180,000 a year could be raised to spend on improvements. It could be in place within a year, if approved.

Metal heritage and art display

A LIBRARY is hosting a exhibition unearthing the Black Country's heritage featuring a well-known artist.

Tipton Library, in Unity Walk, will be hosting its popular history day on Saturday, which features an exhibition by Luke Perry, an historian and metalworks artist based in Cradley Heath.

Mr Perry has created photographic portraits of workers at Solid Swivel manufacturers in Cradley Heath, housed in metal frames assembled and crafted from waste metal found on the factory floor. This exhibition was a commissioned as part of the Black country echoes project in 2014.

It will open at Tipton library's Local History Day and run until the end of October.

Fish stolen from nature reserve

FISH have been stolen from a pool at a nature reserve near the Rowley Hills.

Police are stepping up patrols at a Warrens Hall nature reserve in a campaign against anti-social behaviour.

Shoe camera pervert looked up skirts

A MAN caught with thousands of indecent images of children on his computer also secretly filmed up the skirts of women using a camera attached to his shoe.

Police raided the house of Davin Taylor while he was on holiday with his partner on September 11 last year and seized a number of computers and electronic devices.

When the 44-year-old returned the next day and was questioned by police, he admitted they would find images of children on his computer.

Mr Marcus Henry, prosecuting, told Wolverhampton Crown Court that Taylor "obtained a thrill out of downloading the images" and some of the items involved children as young as three.

Officers found thousands of images, including some that appeared to have been filmed secretly.

Mr Henry said: "In fact there were a number of images and videos whereby the defendant had attached a covert camera to his shoe and had used it to film up the skirts of women."

This took place between May 2011 and May 2012, and Taylor pleaded guilty to two counts of covert filming at an earlier appearance.

He had also pleaded guilty to three counts of possession of indecent still images of children, three counts of possession of indecent moving images and two counts of possession of extreme pornographic images. The charges all related to the period between August 2012 and August 2014.

A total of 839 of the still images were the most serious Category A, while there were 675 Category B and 1,725 Category C. When it came to video, 83 were Category A, 36 Category B, and 89 Category C.

Mr Stephen Hamblett, mitigating, said Taylor, of Halesowen Street, Rowley Regis, had expressed genuine remorse for what he had done.

Judge Mark Eades said: "A moment's thought would have made you realise to produce those images children had to be abused."

He sentenced Taylor to a three-year community rehabilitation programme, five years on a sex offender treatment programme and a sexual harm prevention order. Hemust not have contact with females under the age of 16.

Eight years in prison for iron bar beating

A MAN who viciously attacked two other men with an iron bar has been jailed for eight years.

Sam Branigan, who was with his parents, forced his way into the home of David Smith who he suspected of throwing a brick through his window earlier.

Mr Smith, aged 24, and a friend were hit over the head with an iron bar. Both victims suffered severe cuts.

At Wolverhampton Crown Court, Branigan was given two eight-year prison terms to run concurrently. He had previously been convicted of two counts of wounding with intent to cause grievous bodily harm following a trial.

At a hearing in August his parents Lee Branigan, aged 47, of Springfield Lane, Rowley Regis and Angela Branigan, 41, of Newhall Street, West Bromwich, were jailed for five years and three years respectively for their role in the attack.

The court was told Sam Branigan was sitting in the back room of his house in Denby Drive, Hateley Heath, when a brick was thrown through a front window on December 29. He believed Mr Smith was responsible but Judge Martin Walsh said there was no evidence that had been the case.

Later the same night Angela Branigan drove her husband and son to Mr Smith's home.

Mr Stephen Bailey, defending, said his client had gone to the house to 'talk things through' but then snapped.

Trigger

He said: "The trigger for Sam Branigan's involvement was a campaign by somebody he believes to be one or more of the people involved in this case, of a brick being thrown through his window and general intimidation and aggression. What he does say is that he did not intend to go round and immediately assault these men. Having got to the house he lost control."

Mr Bailey said his client, who had been a labourer and window fitter, had been growing increasingly upset by attempts to intimidate him as his partner was six weeks away from giving birth.

He added that the family had a history of acting violently together.

"One thing that could be said about the Branigan family is that they are very close," he said. "There is a history of the family coming together and acting violently in support of each other."

Pub's blooming marvellous result

Verity Campbell and Chris O'Gorman, from Wednesbury Garden Services, with landlady Vicki Devine

IT'S drinks all round at a Rowley Regis pub which is celebrating a gold award in the Heart of England In Bloom competition.

From colourful hanging baskets to beer barrels filled with begonias – The Britannia has been a pretty sight for its customers.

Gardener Chris O'Gorman secretly entered the pub in the prestigious competition and landlady Vicki Devine was surprised by a phone call about their success.

Mrs Devine, who has worked at the pub for four and a half years, said: "We actually didn't know we had won anything until someone phoned up, it was our gardener who decided to enter us in the first place, as we'd had so many great comments about the front of the pub."

"One lady wrote us a letter to say that seeing the flowers everyday had made her drive to work so much better."

"We are a real community-based pub so we hoped that the displays would make us more family friendly too. To win the award has been a lovely bonus and it's something we definitely want to enter again next year."

The Halesowen Street pub has more than 30 hanging baskets, troughs and two barrels filled with begonias. The beer garden was also decorated with bay trees and a fountain.

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

THE big news on the front pages and trumpeted by TV and radio is that Facebook is to launch a "dislike" button. The small and rather neglected news is that North Korea has fired up its nuclear programme to make bigger and better hydrogen bombs. Interesting priorities.

HOW phobias work. Those of us with a yabba-dabba relationship with spiders will take no comfort at all in this week's news that a British firm has perfected the spider-proof garden shed. The idea is that no spider can get into the silicone-sealed garden hut. Or to put it another way, if a spider enters by the door which is then closed, it has no escape. It's just you and the spider, locked together, sealed together, mutually terrified. My own shed is well provided with chinks, gaps, knot-holes and other escape routes. At this time of year as I enter, there is a sudden scurry of small things exiting.

I AM often wrong in my political forecasts but I would not write off Jeremy Corbyn too soon. While the Westminster elite have been guffawing at his unpolished speeches or tut-tutting at his refusal to sing the National Anthem, 30,000 new members have joined the Labour Party. The more the Fleet Street pack snap at his heels and the more that smart-arse TV pundits scoff at him, the more the Great British Public sees Corbyn as a bullied hero and suspect there is an Establishment plot against him.

AND tell me, how is an avowed republican like Corbyn supposed to sing the line: "Long to reign over us"? Sing and you're a hypocrite. Don't sing and you're a traitor.

THE total debt on this planet is now almost three times the planet's annual output. Every man, woman and child owes, on average, about £20,000. The sums are way beyond boggling. As one wag asked on the radio a few days ago: "Who are we borrowing from - Mars?"

Borough's jobless total shrinks by a quarter

UNEMPLOYMENT has plummeted across Dudley over the last year, official figures have revealed, with hundreds of people getting back into work.

Job queues have shrunk by nearly a quarter with the borough boosted by new jobs at firms including Ultimate Outdoors which created 80 positions at its Merry Hill store.

More jobs are on the way, including at Aldi which is set to recruit a total of 80 people for two new stores in Dudley and Stourbridge.

The number of people in Dudley claiming unemployment benefits, such as Jobseeker's Allowance, has fallen by 1,479 over 12 months to 5,169 last month.

Although last month's claimant count was down by just one on the previous month, it was part of a success story that has seen unemployment across the whole West Midlands fall by 44,000 - more than a fifth - over the last year, to 156,000 between May and July, according to the Office for National Statistics.

Encouraged

Dudley South Conservative MP Mike Wood said he was encouraged by the falling figures and claimed further support is on the way.

"Our top priority has been a sustainable economy that in turn means more people in work," he said.

"It is the Government's work programmes that are giving the support that people need. August trends are for figures to slightly rise with people leaving school or college but there is more and more training available year on year."

by Simon Penfold

Labour MP for Dudley North Ian Austin said: "I celebrate every new job in the area but long-term youth unemployment in the Black Country remains three times the national average, which is why we need to make education and skills our number one priority."

"The only way we will attract new investment to replace the jobs we've lost is by having the skills that new industries need."

The West Midlands' unemployment fall, down 21,000 compared to the previous three months, was in sharp contrast to the rest of the country where the overall UK jobless total rose by 10,000 to 1.8 million. That is due to higher jobless rates in London, the South East and the North East.

Last Tango in Birmingham

Passionate — Vincent Simone and Flavia Cacace

STRICTLY Come Dancing favourites, Vincent Simone and Flavia Cacace certainly intend to go out in style with their last touring theatre show, The Last Tango, currently stunning audiences at the Birmingham Hippodrome.

After a glittering 20 years together, the world dance champions are presenting a final theatrical showcase of their incredible skills, in what surely has to be their most emotional and passionate production to date, as part of a 33 week tour.

Don't worry. The couple are not completely calling it a day but simply moving on to new projects.

Telling a story through dance is not always easy but this talented company, who boast some of the best dancers in the world, achieve it with ease.

The beautiful Flavia Cacace awards her fans with an extraordinary performance, while Vincent Simone is the perfect partner, offering his very own mixture of intensity and roughish personality. It is easy to see why they are the most formidable partnership in ballroom dancing.

Runs until Saturday.

New music project hits the right note

A MUSIC institute is to be created at Brierley Hill's Waterfront complex under ambitious plans to bring hundreds of students to the town.

Dudley Council has announced it is working with the Birmingham Institute of Contemporary Music and Production on the project.

If approved, the scheme will bring 600 students to the town to study degrees and other qualifications in music, production, education, composition and music management.

New facilities will also be created including rehearsal rooms, recording studios, a shop, technology labs, classrooms and a lecture theatre.

It will also play a major role in organising music festivals across the borough.

Regeneration

Council officials said the project would be a key part of the regeneration proposals for the Waterfront after the council set up a Business Investment Zone to revive the area. But the project was still in its early stages.

Councillor Khurshid Ahmed, cabinet member for planning and economic development, said: "This is a major opportunity for us and shows that Dudley borough is a key destination for nationally renowned organisations. The new music institute will create a state-of-the-art venue for some of the country's top music students."

A Defiant on display in St Peter's gardens, in Wolverhampton, just after the war

No 264 Squadron Defiants seen on patrol during the Battle of Britain

Flying back to recall bravery of The Few

IT IS the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Britain, the last major anniversary when many of those brave Few who fought in the Battle are still with us.

Wolverhampton's highest profile contribution to the battle was the Boulton Paul Defiant fighter, built at Pendeford. Two squadrons of Defiants, No.141 and No.264, fought alongside the more numerous Spitfires and Hurricanes during the Battle, with dogfights taking place in the skies until late October, 1940.

Indeed it was a Defiant which shot down the Dornier bomber that was so publicly raised from the sea bed off the Kent coast over two years ago, and which is now under long-term restoration at the RAF Museum, in Cosford.

On Battle of Britain Day, Sunday September 20, the Tettenhall Transport Heritage Centre unveiled their new display about the Defiant, and raffled a unique framed photograph of a Defiant on test flight from Pendeford.

The photograph is signed by five former Defiant aircrew who fought in the Battle – pilots Eric Barwell and John Lauder, along with air gunners Fred Gash and Fred Barker, the latter, becoming the highest scoring Defiant gunner, with 13 victories to his name.

It is possible therefore Fred might be the highest scoring air gunner of all time.

The fifth signatory, pilot Christopher Deanesly has very special Wolverhampton connections. Not only was he born in Wolverhampton in January 1910, his father Edward Deanesly was an eminent surgeon at the Royal Hospital, and the Deanesly Cancer Centre at New Cross is named after him.

Crashed

Christopher Deanesly flew Spitfires during the Battle in 152 Squadron, but after recuperating from being shot down over the Channel was posted to No.256 Squadron flying Defiants.

During the Blitz, he and his gunner, New Zealander, Sgt W Scott, shot down four German bombers, including a Heinkel which crashed in Smethwick. The volunteers at the Heritage Centre are rebuilding the cockpit of a Defiant and proceeds from the raffle will assist with that.

IN MY VIEW

with Mark Andrews

A cultured approach to living a proper life

ARE you cultured? I've always liked to believe I am. I've got the full box-set of The Sweeney on DVD, I always insist on Tesco Classic coffee, and I would never dream of asking for lager in a pub. In other words, I'm a discerning man about town who appreciates the finer things in life. Well, Black Country life, anyway.

A new survey reveals a list of 40 things which determine how cultured we are, and for many people it will make mixed reading.

For instance I do have a library card, which is one of the attributes. I read a newspaper every day – well several actually – and don't turn the news off when it comes on television. So far, so good then. But then it gets more difficult. For example, you're probably unlikely to find me in an art gallery – I don't know much about art, but I do know what I like. And it sure isn't the kind of guff you'll get in the Tate Modern.

Watching subtitled films is supposed to be another sign of being a well-rounded individual, but surely if you're that smart you'll be fluent in a different language anyway, and the subtitles will be superfluous. Unless you're watching Taggart, of course. Knowing about different cuts of meat is also cited, and I can tell the difference between KVE Original and pork crunch.

The survey also suggested that a truly cultured person would always want to read a book before watching the film adaptation. I totally agree, but I've never been able to track down the novel to Muttiny On The Buses.

■ ■ ■ ■
The Queen's record-breaking reign has brought the usual dreary protests out from the drab republicans, moaning that there is nothing democratic about an hereditary monarchy. But I suspect if there were a referendum tomorrow, more people would vote for keeping the Queen than replacing her with a boring middle-aged man in a suit.

And if that happened, would those committed democrats respect the will of the people that voted in the referendum? Of course they would. Just like the Scottish Nationalists did.

■ ■ ■ ■
THE end I.S. sigh, screamed the headline. "The defeat of Islamic State is inevitable after nearly half its fighters were wiped out." Some days I really wish I could believe everything I read in The Sun.

■ ■ ■ ■
The English Bridge Union is now trying to get sitting around playing cards as a sport. And quite right too. Let's just make sure they include pontoon and rummy. And snap, of course. Then I can say I'm not only cultured, but also a sportsman. I never knew my life was so complete.

Tony's engineering expertise helps with each guitar's creation

Accomplished player Sam tunes up one of the latest instruments

Some of the amazing range of instruments made by the Wrights

Strum-thing special for a father and son

SIMON PENFOLD meets a family duo who are hoping to make it in the music world with their carefully crafted guitars

IT has been a long, tough and sometimes heartbreaking journey, but engineer Tony Wright says he is now 'living the dream' – working alongside his youngest son, crafting hand-made guitars in a small workshop in Wolverhampton.

Like most teenagers, Tony picked up a guitar. But unlike most he kept on playing and eventually learned electric bass.

Now, 43 years on, he and son Sam are launching their own business, Lakestone Guitars, and rapidly building a strong reputation for the quality of their work and the beautiful tone produced by their guitars.

Father and son say they have been supported by their strong Christian faith and by their love for their craft as luthiers – a term dating back to the original lute makers of the 15th and 16th centuries. Their current profession is a million miles from where Tony started, training as an apprentice fitter with Robinson Brothers in West Bromwich in 1972.

Redesigning

His engineering career went from strength to strength. Working for an engineering consultancy in Wolverhampton he found himself redesigning the machine at the Cadbury factory at Bournville that makes the Curly Wurly.

"That was in 1982, and as far as I know it's still working today," said Tony, who lives in Gornal.

After completing a two-year degree course at the former Wolverhampton Polytechnic, Tony switched to working in education, and was rapidly head-hunted as design lecturer at Dudley College and then appointed as head of department. Meanwhile, he had taught himself to make electric guitars. "I had been asked to play with a group of musicians who were professionals or semi-pro, and I decided I needed something better than my old Squire bass. I bought one in Birmingham but didn't like the tone, and when I took it back I saw one hanging on the shop wall that used to be owned by Mark King, from Level 42. It sounded fantastic, but I looked at the price and it was £3,500 – a lot of money in the 1980s. So it went back on the wall.

Sam Wright, aged 25, and his father Tony, 59, are making guitars together in Wolverhampton

"I thought, I'm a design engineer, I can learn how to make one. I did it in my spare time, lunch hours in the college workshop."

But in 1989 Tony suffered a massive heart attack. He tried to return to work but the stress was too great and he had to take early retirement. He carried on with the guitar making and repairs in his garden shed, and also worked part-time as a pastor at his church. His guitars, meanwhile, were building a small but appreciative audience among skilled players.

Then, eight years ago, his wife of 30 years died from cancer. "Our faith helped get us through, but I just didn't want to make guitars any more," said Tony. Sam, the youngest son and a talented musician in his own right, was also struggling. "There were days he just didn't want to get out of bed," said Tony. "He had made his first guitar at 13 or 14, so I said let's go and make guitars. I started making acoustics because it was something new for me, we could learn together."

Learning to make acoustic guitars well can take decades, but the Wrights had a stroke of luck. Tony had invented a device called a universal fret slotter that could accurately fit the frets on guitar necks to within one 4,000th of an inch. They have been sold globally and led to a call from world-renowned guitar maker George Lowden. Working on a series of projects at Lowden's factory in Northern Ireland resulted in a masterclass for Tony in the skills and intricacies of making acoustic guitars.

He's passed these skills on to Sam and to his musician friend Dan Clark, who offered the duo his garage in Wolverhampton as their workshop as the business outgrew the shed in Gornal. After months of work, which included turning the garage into a temperature and humidity-controlled environment, father and son are launching Lakestone Guitars – hoping to make at least two guitars a month. Currently, each guitar is the result of around 200 hours of work, although they are hoping to bring that down in their new workshop. Each one is handmade for the client, usually from rosewood but also from walnut, mahogany, spruce, cedar and rarer timbers such as lacewood, all from plane trees, or even Adirondack spruce. "That can cost £200 just for enough to make the face of the guitar's body, but it produces a lovely tone," Tony adds.

A dense African hardwood called wenge is sometimes used for fingerboards, but the Wrights are sticklers for ebony on acoustic guitar fretboards. The use of different woods is crucial in the distinct sound each guitar will produce, with bodies made of cedar, for example, producing a warmer sound.

Even on electric guitars, the wood makes a big difference. Maple, used for Fender-style guitars, will produce a brasher sound, while the mahogany used for a Gibson style instrument will offer a warmer tone.

Thinner

Alongside a craftsman's knowledge of his materials, Tony brings 21st century engineering nous. He likes making guitars with thinner necks and has come up with a way of using carbon fibre to strengthen them. He is also making guitars with a distinctive fan fret, like his mentor George Lowden. It improves the sound and is easier to play. The company name, Lakestone, comes from the old stone quarry near Tony's original shed in Gornal.

Depending on the woods used, a Lakestone Guitar will be priced at around £2,500. Tony said: "The business hasn't made a penny yet but I hope it will provide a living for Sam and I, particularly for Sam. I am 59, so I'll have my pension soon, but Sam is only 25. I want this to be a long-running business."

Alongside a business they love, father and son have also had some much-deserved happiness in their home lives.

Sam has married – with his pastor father conducting the service – and Tony too has remarried, bringing home a Canadian bride Lonnie after meeting online – "She says she got me cheap on eBay," he jokes.

"She comes from British Columbia, and after we were married her sister came across a batch of rare woods being sold, bought them and sent them to me. What a great sister-in-law is that! I couldn't believe it when I opened the parcel. It was stuff you just can't get over here." For details visit www.lakestoneguitars.co.uk

At least Corbyn offers alternative

LIKE him or loathe him, one thing that is certain is that a Labour Party led by Jeremy Corbyn is, at last, going to offer some sort of opposition to this Tory Government and will also provide an alternative to the Tory policies we have had to endure (no matter who was in power) ever since Tony Blair became leader.

For far too long the Labour Party has just been a mere shadow of the Conservative Party and the leadership seem to have forgotten their roots. It does not seem to have occurred to them that Tory policies are Tory policies, irrespective of whether they are being carried out by the Conservatives or the Labour Party.

Perhaps, in Jeremy Corbyn, we now have a Labour leader who, although not perfect, at least realises that there just may be an alternative to the policies followed by the Governments of the last 18 years or more.

Any MPs who find it impossible to remain within the Labour Party should do the honourable thing.

Combined authority an opportunity

THESE pages have included misleading letters regarding the proposed Combined Authority. Their claim is that somehow the Black Country would lose its identity and become subsumed by an all powerful Birmingham.

Absolutely nonsense. If we want our proud region to become a forgotten backwater then a sure fire way of achieving this is to turn our back on a Combined Authority. This blinkered isolationist view will see the Black Country missing out on key funding for improved infrastructure and for jobs of the future.

Black Country council leaders need to grab this opportunity and make sure that as a region we have the strongest possible voice WITHIN a Combined Authority to make sure the Black Country's identity is not only protected but promoted. We can't afford to miss the boat on this.

Reasons for the lack of lorry drivers

RE: the shortage of LGV drivers. It's not just low pay scales to blame.

There are also other reasons such as impossible schedules, road congestion, satellite tracking, drivers' rules, lack of overnight parking facilities, diesel theft, cost of getting qualified, and the new CPC which all drivers have to do every five years.

There is no safe designated lorry park in the Black Country. Drivers deserve a good night's sleep, not having to worry about any thieving. To park up on Motorway Services costs £20 or more, some hauliers forbid using them.

Any accident the police always check tachograph evidence. It's the only job where you can go to jail for working too hard.

It is a skilled job/lifestyle and when delays occur may mean not getting home at night. It is not appealing as a career anymore, which is why there is a shortage.

Just a few things LGV drivers have to put up with.

Wow, what a waste at New Street Station

WOW, am I mad!

Two weeks ago, our weird, irresponsible, right wing Establishment opened 49km of a mainly single track, rural railway line in depopulated southern Scotland.

Who had heard of Tweed-bank?

Next, not a new New Street Station but a new shopping centre.

Out with the Pallasades and in with Grand Central while the underground platforms are tagged along as an afterthought in the basement of John Lewis. They remain dim, dingy and diesel perfumed.

Train congestion and delays are as bad as ever.

The £750m (spent on New Street) could have been put towards building the much-needed additional tunnels at the western and eastern approaches.

Or, the £750m could have been used to restore the passenger trains and stations to the 78km of double track freight lines in the Black Country and Brum that are literally alongside, or near to, the traffic choked roads.

Next fanfare will be for the very short — but still extravagant in an age of austerity — £100 million for a mile tram extension from Snow Hill to Grand Central, as we continue to struggle to get around on our crowded roads and railways.

Stick to rules on refugees

I WOULD just like to remind Dudley Council that according to their rules none of these refugees qualify for council accommodation.

They have made themselves homeless and have homes in Syria so this disqualifies them from being re-housed. That's what they told me and I have lived in Dudley for 63 years.

The magic behind our... transformations

IT'S HARD to imagine that anyone would leave the sunny beaches of Spain or Portugal to find potential life-changing solutions at a dental practice in the Black Country heartland of Dudley.

But the town's Denture Clinic, considered by some as their final opportunity to find a resolve for long-term teeth problems, has seen patients do just that.

The clinic's prosthetics, prescribed and handcrafted on premises at this multi-disciplined dental practice in North Street, also has attracted people from Dorset, the Isle of Anglesey, the Isle of Skye and London.

Over the last decade, principal Steven Burchell DipCDT RCS(Eng) GDC 108353, has encountered some heart-rending accounts of how ill-fitting teeth have caused unnecessary suffering, eroded confidence, restricted social engagement and been responsible for shocking dietary regimes.

"Thankfully, we have never failed to deliver a successful clinical solution," he says.

"The power of viral marketing never ceases to amaze me as we have never promoted our work beyond the Midlands. But the remarkable reputation the team has built here has found an eager audience — the last challenging case coming from Llandudno," Steven adds.

Remarkable reputation

Quick to point out, the core philosophy of both his Denture Clinic and North Street Dental & Implant Clinic, Steven says: "We don't sell solutions, but provide honest, comprehensive, clinical appraisals that help patients make informed choices." There is no charge for an initial consultation and never pressure. "Sometimes I get patients back a couple of times before they commit. The information is free, as is the consultation.

"If something won't work, we'll tell them, but there's no reason for anyone to put up with uncomfortable and unsightly dentures." It wasn't that long ago that an amalgamation between glamour and dentures was unheard of, but these unlikely descriptive bedfellows are now increasingly being fused together at Steven's clinics in Dudley, Wolverhampton and Kidderminster.

Evangelical about what new-generation denture prescriptions can achieve, Steven adds: "Dentures have traditionally never been associated with cosmetic makeovers, but our high-quality prosthetics have quite literally taken years off some of our patients, reshaping smiles, sunken cheeks and pinched lips.

"Our teeth look real — the aesthetics and attention to detail for fit are astounding — and all prescriptions are functional too."

The current palette of solutions to deliver a more youthful, engaging smile has never been so great, with traditional prosthetics, implant-retained over-dentures and the most popular of inquiries — suction diaphragm dentures.

"Can dentures ever be glamorous?

Emphatically, yes," says Steven, who works hand-in-glove with practice implant surgeon, Dr Owain Rees BDS, DGDIP (UK) DIP IMP DENT (UCL), and North Street's general dentist, Polly Mineva (GDC 188090), a Doctor of Dental Medicine.

Denture problem? It's not a problem for us

• Loose dentures — A regular issue at the clinic often cause by bone erosion in the jaw. Possible solutions include high quality traditional dentures, suction valve dentures, or implant-retained overdentures.

With the Ultra Suction denture system a clever diaphragm principle, triggered by bite pressure on patients' gums, creates a 'sucking' vacuum between the soft-tissue mouth lining and the prosthetic.

• Poor aesthetics — The Denture Clinic is fastidious about the quality of its prosthetics and 'looking natural' has always been its hallmark.

• Sore spots — It's all about getting the fit perfect and with an on-site laboratory and cutting edge diagnostics, the clinic can ensure harmonious mating between gums and prescription.

• Failing teeth — Under one roof the surgical skill set covers nearly all eventualities, from simple fillings, endodontics (root fillings) to extractions and complex dental implant work.

• Inability to eat properly — Denture Clinic prescriptions are 'set' using a Biofunctional Prosthetics System (BPS) which helps with the accurate replication of natural teeth anatomy during the production process.

• Aftercare — Always high on the agenda. "We always give as much as the patients needs," says Steven.

• Suction dentures • Complete dentures • Partial dentures • Copy dentures • Implant-retained dentures • Repairs service • Relines • Soft linings

Formidable fraulein is no joke for Jonny

Not laughing now — Black Country comic Jonny Cole discovers his female opponent really means business

BLACK Country comedian Jonny Cole admits he was left 'battered, bruised and squashed' after his charity tussle with a female wrestling champion ended in defeat.

The Wednesbury funnyman took on fearsome German grappler Alpha Female at the Copthorne Hotel in Dudley to raise funds for Women's Aid.

Stand-up comic Cole became a 'lie-down' comedian, spending the majority of the short bout sprawled on the floor, his face a picture of anguish.

In one painful looking move Alpha Female, aka Marie Kristin Gabert, hurled Cole face down onto the mat before pulling him legs akimbo straight into the corner post. The manoeuvre caused Cole's trademark flat cap — which he had refused to remove — to come flying off his head.

"If it hadn't been for the padding I'd have been in serious trouble there," Cole said the day after the event. "I'm still sore after all that gambolling but it was a good laugh and I have to give credit to Alpha Female for trying her best to make me look like I knew what I was doing!"

A crowd of more than 200 saw the action, helping to raise around £3,000 for the charity.

Before the bout the formidable fraulein ramped up the tension by saying: "He hasn't taken his preparations seriously. For that he will pay."

Cole had announced that he was confident of 'putting on a decent show', although his bravado had completely vanished by the time he was in his Lycra bodysuit and prepared to enter the ring draped in the Black Country flag. "When it was time to step into the ring I knew I was in trouble," he added.

The night also featured comedy from Cole, music from The Ronaldos and a three-versus-three wrestling.

Watson role filled if Hollywood calls

DANIEL WAINWRIGHT
Political Editor

FOR years the European Union was the millstone around the Tories' necks. Last week it turned into Labour's.

Within hours of Jeremy Corbyn becoming the party's leader and by a landslide majority, Wolverhampton North East MP Emma Reynolds joined an exodus of front benchers.

Chief among her concerns was that Mr Corbyn had been highly critical of the EU and might not only fail to campaign to stay in, he might even have wanted to join the side of 'out'.

She was not alone. Former shadow business secretary Chuka Umunna said: "It is my view that we should support the UK remaining a member of the EU, notwithstanding the outcome of any renegotiation by the Prime Minister, and I cannot envisage any circumstances where I would be campaigning alongside those who would argue for us to leave - Jeremy has made it clear to me that he does wholeheartedly share this view."

Five days passed and another Wolverhampton MP, the south east's Pat McCadden, still did not know his future. As shadow Europe minister his role, while not in the shadow cabinet, was surely essential.

But it was Thursday night before he was given the news he wanted to hear - Jeremy Corbyn would campaign to stay in the EU. The crucial reassurance for pro-Europe Mr McCadden was that it was not just a passive promise not to campaign to leave, but an active one to fight to stay in. If Mr Corbyn could give such assurances to Mr McCadden, then why not to Mr Umunna?

Deputy Labour leader Tom Watson

He had said on Wednesday night that Labour's policy on Europe was 'developing'. By Thursday it was well and truly formed.

With the party now trying to pull itself back together as the dust settles after a long and drawn out leadership contest, the last thing it wants is its own equivalent of the Maastricht rebellion that split the Tories.

After all, it's not as though the Parliamentary Labour Party are short of things to disagree with Jeremy Corbyn on. Some are less than happy with his own record of supporting Labour. He has rebelled against his own party 533 times in his 32 years.

That means he has voted against

Shaun of the Dead star Nick Frost

Labour more times than David Cameron, who has been in the Commons since 2001. One Labour MP said: "Jeremy Corbyn never paid very much attention to previous leaders' whips so I don't think I'll be too bothered about his." Then the MP saw the positive side and added: "Which means I might get home a bit earlier."

If Hollywood is ever looking to make a movie about the current British Labour party - no, I don't think it's likely either - they will be looking to cast someone as West Bromwich MP and new deputy leader Tom Watson. They need look no further than Nick Frost, star of films such as Shaun of the Dead. The pair are almost dead ringers for each other, so much so Frost tweeted: "I want to thank everyone who supported me and I'm thrilled at my election."

Grand Central is open for business

Grand Central and New Street Station now dominates Birmingham city centre with its stunning glass atrium, major new John Lewis store and 'media eye' hi-tech advertising hoardings
Photograph courtesy of Verity E. Milligan

A SHOPPING complex rivaling the best London has to offer, with streams of light pouring in through a huge glass ceiling – welcome to Grand Central in Birmingham.

The £600 million transformation of New Street Station was unveiled at the weekend and now shoppers can flock to Grand Central and its sprawling John Lewis store.

Some 50 million of them are expected in the first year alone, as the city heads into a new era.

For years visitors to Birmingham have been confronted by the dark concrete expanse of the old station, heading up escalators only to face a walk through the dated Pallasades centre. But bosses hope the £150m Grand Central and the new station will give visitors from across the country a positive impression that will keep them coming back.

New Street was originally known as Grand Central when it opened in 1854 and the new shopping complex is spread across four floors and 250,000sqft.

John Lewis alone will have £30m of stock ranging from fashion and homeware to technology.

When the long-awaited plans for

New Street finally got off the ground, civic leaders wanted to make sure they did not waste the opportunity to transform the city.

So they decided to make it much more than just a train station and instead create a shopping destination in its own right, to complement the hugely successful Bullring.

John Lewis – one of the biggest in the country – may be the 'anchor' store but there is plenty more to explore. More than 60 shops and restaurants are spread across 500,000 sq ft, ranging from Carluccio's and Costa Coffee to Nando's and wine bar Frizzetti.

Brave son inspires father's run

A FATHER from Cradley Heath is gearing up to run the Great Birmingham Half-Marathon after being inspired by his son who suffers from a rare disease.

Adam South's three-year-old son, Jack, contracted Kawasaki's Disease at eight months old.

He was one of the first children to be diagnosed with the disease at Russells Hall Hospital. The condition causes inflammation in arteries.

Mr South, 31, from Waterfall Lane, will be running the marathon for Birmingham charity Young at Heart on October 18, which supports families of children with heart defects.

Mr South, a teacher at Hurst Green Primary School said: "Young at Heart were amazing to us."

See his appeal page at www.justgiving.com/Adam-South2

Sally Army's brass bands

THE West Midlands Fellowship Band will be performing in Cradley Heath.

They will be joined by the Shirley Band, from Solihull, who are competing in the brass band championship next year.

The event will take place at the Salvation Army Church, in Meredith Street, on Friday, October 2. Refreshments will be available. Call (01384) 563 570 or visit website www.salvationarmy.org.uk/cradley-heath#church

FOCUS ON CRADLEY AND CRADLEY HEATH

Pub supporters launch new bid to protect their local

MORE than 250 people have signed a petition against fresh plans to build a store on a pub car park in Cradley Heath.

Sandwell Council has already thrown out one scheme put forward by New River Retail for the Haden Cross site on Halesowen Road. The pub was also granted Asset of Community Value status.

But the firm has submitted fresh proposals, saying it has addressed issues raised by councillors.

The Friends of Haden Cross group has collected more than 250 signatures in two weeks for a petition which will be submitted to the council after Sunday.

The group hopes to hold a public meeting on October 13 at the Haden Cross from 7.30pm. It is expected that the planning application may be decided by councillors on October 21.

Group chairman Tim Haskey said: "Our current petition against this revised application is going exceptionally well with over 250 signatures raised in under two weeks since launch. We are closing this petition on Sunday, to compile the final count before it will be handed to Sandwell Council by our local councillor, Ann Shackleton. We are led to believe that if this revised application goes to committee, this will possibly be held on October 21. Thus our

by Heather Large next public meeting to plan action is pencilled in to take place on October 13."

Regulars at the Haden Cross thought that they had successfully stopped developers when an application was rejected by Sandwell Council in January.

Mr Haskey said that they had thought they had shaken developers off when the pub was granted Asset of Community Value status by the council but the new proposal had left them feeling downhearted.

The developer says the number of parking spaces has been increased from 13 to 25, while the height of the roof's store will now be below that of the pub.

Mr Haskey added: Mr Haskey said: "New River has proposed more spaces for the pub now but that is still a loss of the 16 spaces and our beer garden."

Morgan Siviter is campaigning for a former key Cradley Heath shop to be replaced

Teenager's High Street campaign

BOY campaigner Morgan Siviter will broker talks with an MP in a bid to revitalise a his local high street.

The 14-year-old wants to see a former supermarket store reopened to help people into Cradley Heath.

The store has been empty for months after being vacated by a carpet retailer. Before that the unit was home to supermarket chain Kwik Save.

Morgan, who lives in nearby Netherton, is gathering support for his bid to find a tenant for the store. He is planning a meeting with Halesowen and Rowley Regis MP James Morris over the coming weeks to discuss the issue. Morgan, who attends Earls High School in Halesowen, already has the backing of local councillors.

"This is the biggest store left empty on the high street. It's a shame to see it shut. I am confident something can be done," said the determined youngster.

A bumper harvest is zoo feast

A green-fingered couple from Cradley Heath have supplied animals at Dudley Zoo with a gift of their harvest surplus of marrows, swede, cabbages and pumpkins.

John and Shirley Jordan delivered the pile of produce to the zoo in Castle Hill after they had a bumper harvest on their allotment.

Mr Jordan, who has a plot at Cherry Orchard allotments near his home, said: "There's too much here for us and it's a real pleasure to give it to the zoo as we love animals."

The 20 cabbages, two pumpkins, a dozen marrows and several swedes have been shared out across the site. Head of lower primates Nicola Wright said: "Chimps have enjoyed eating the flesh of the pumpkin and we are drying out the seeds to give to our saki monkeys."

School hosts open days

ORMISTON Forge Academy in Cradley Heath will be holding two open days this week for youngsters who are due to start secondary school in 2016.

Prospective students and their parents are invited to the school in Wrights Lane today (Thu) and on Saturday. Visitors can try science experiments, eat food prepared by students and meet the academy's principal, Andrew Burns. Doors are open from 6 to 8.30pm today, 9-noon Saturday.

Traders ensure town is blooming

ADVERTISING FEATURE

HALESOWEN is one of the most thriving town centres in the Black Country, says Chairman of Halesowen Chamber of Trade, Wayne Edwards.

The town has the benefit of a progressive Chamber of Trade which, with the support of the traders and local organisations, is achieving remarkable results in introducing innovative ideas and activities to attract even more shoppers and visitors.

Recently agreed with Dudley Council and shortly to be introduced is the provision of 35 additional free parking places, providing 45 minutes of short-term parking to those needing to make only a short visit to the town centre.

The Chamber is currently also in negotiation with Dudley Council to test the viability of a Business Improvement District (see page 3), otherwise known as a BID, for the town centre. This gives power to the town centre traders to introduce and finance improvements to the trading, shopping and business environment.

Attractive

This includes cleaner, safer streets by day and by night, even more attractive displays, encouragement of new businesses and helping those new businesses to become established on a long term basis, plus much more.

New or improved events have been introduced to the town such as the Christmas Lights switch-on event, which last year attracted 43,000 visitors in one day to the town centre. In co-operation with Halesowen and Rowley Regis Rotary Club, the Black Country Road Race and Fun Run and the Black Country Fayre both brought substantial numbers of visitors.

There are moves to smarten up Grange Island, the principal entrance to the town, with the erection of a statue which will be symbolic of Halesowen's illustrious history and greatly enhance the perception of a thriving town for the many visitors.

Halesowen can be proud that it has achieved a gold award for its Halesow-en In Bloom entry in the national competition at only the second attempt, having achieved the silver gilt award last year. This has been achieved through the efforts of Eve O'Connor chairperson for Halesowen in Bloom. The results of these efforts can still be seen in the many floral displays.

Thanks to work by the Chamber, Halesowen now has its own website which with links from other websites now offers an opportunity to see all that Halesowen has to offer and things to come. Go to www.halesowentowncentre.co.uk

A friendly welcome at Jo's Baguette Bar in the The Cornbow shopping centre, Halesowen

Shop locally for a better experience

AS the days get shorter and there is a chilly nip in the air, why travel far and wide for your shopping when you can find everything you need right on your doorstep in Halesowen Town Centre?

From household names such as Clarks, New Look, Peacocks, Argos, Thorntons and Asda to independents such as Russell's Fruits, Hewitt's Butchers and the promotional stands, town centre shoppers are spoilt for choice in Halesowen.

There is even a Farmer's Market on the second and fourth Saturday of every month from 9am to 5pm where you can browse stalls selling home-made and home-grown food and crafts in the Somers Square.

There is also a range of national and independent food outlets such as Greggs, Coffee Worx, Drucker's and Jo's Baguette Bar

Shopping locally can certainly save you money, as goods and services can often be cheaper as walking or convenient public transport links with a state-of-the-art bus station means you may not need to factor in fuel costs.

But if you choose to drive, there are free parking spaces on Queensway as well as numerous short and long-term stay options. In the Asda car park you can park for a maximum of three hours if you spend £5 or over in Asda, parking refunded at the checkout.

Having a great choice of independent shops is another benefit of town centre shopping but these small traders can only survive if we support them. So if you want a vibrant town centre, where people can socialise as well as shop, shop locally.

Discovery starts here

There's more for your child to discover at Stagecoach than just a love of performing. Our acting, singing and dance classes boost self-confidence, creativity and curiosity skills that will stay with them for life.

Theatre Arts Schools
Stagecoach
Halesowen

Early Stages

Performance meets play in our fun 90-minute sessions for 4 to 6 year-olds. Our classes are divided into three 30-minute bursts and are a great way to build confidence and new friendships. Weekly classes are held in term-time.

Main Stages

Our sessions for 6 to 18 year-olds let talent and self-esteem shine. Weekly 3-hour classes focus equally on dance, acting and singing. Always something to fire the imagination.

Further Stages

Advanced performers aged 15+ years really flourish in our weekly masterclasses. Lasting between 2 and 3 hours each, these in-depth sessions hone skills and help prepare students for exams and auditions.

Our Plaiçe

Traditional Fish and Chips Since 1968

Our Plaiçe Fish and Chip Shop is located on Dudley Road, Halesowen B63 3NJ and is living up to its reputation of serving the Finest Fish & Chips by far. The stylish detached bungalow style shop standing in its own grounds with car parking for in excess of 40 cars is being run by 3rd generation Oliver Howard. The recent make over by Ollie is just the start of things to come for the Family run shop, which has come a long way since its starting point back in 1968 when Ollie's Nan spotted an opportunity to fire up the frying range in the front room in Colley Gate in the Black Country.

To this day Traditional Fish & Chips are delivered to Parties, Weddings and functions in our custom designed boxes and we will not be beaten on price.

Shrek is taking ogre at the Grand

Go green at the Grand — Brontë Barbé as Princess Fiona, Idriss Kargbo as Donkey and Dean Chisnall as Shrek

BE a believer in fairy tales when monster hit Shrek The Musical arrives at Wolverhampton's Grand Theatre for 16 performances from Wednesday, September 30.

Starring Dean Chisnall, who also played the green ogre in the West End, the cast also includes Over The Rainbow finalist Brontë Barbé as Princess Fiona, Idriss Kargbo as Shrek's wisecracking sidekick Donkey and Gerard Carey as pint-sized villain Lord Farquaad.

Based on the hugely popular animated movie, Shrek The Musical was seen live on stage in London by nearly a million people and helped Neil Diamond's 1960s hit for The Monkees, I'm A Believer, become popular all over again.

Also featuring a love-sick dragon, a biscuit with attitude and a host of fairy tale favourites, the UK tour of Shrek The Musical is directed by Nigel Harman, who played Lord Farquaad at the Theatre Royal Drury Lane.

The show runs at the Grand until October 11, including matinee performances, and tickets range from £16.50 to £44.50.

From tears to cheers

WORLD-FAMOUS violin virtuoso Nicola Benedetti sobbed her way through her first violin lesson, aged four. But the 28-year-old from Ayrshire, who was born to a Scottish mother and Italian father, went on to become one of the most popular classical violinists of her generation.

"I cried through my first violin lesson," remembered Nicola. "I was quite shy and am also left-handed, so I continually picked the instrument up the wrong way. My teacher probably got frustrated and I was just so nervous."

"But from the second lesson on I got the hang of it and really progressed quite quickly. Actually, it was the music moving me to tears that hooked me to the violin."

At the age of eight she became leader of the National Children's Orchestra of Great Britain and by nine had already passed the eight grades of music exams. At 16 she won the BBC Young Musician of the Year competition and had signed a £1 million six album deal. Since then she has won two Classical BRIT Awards for Best Female Artist and was awarded an MBE for services to classical music. One of her biggest motivations is encouraging children to take up music.

Last year's Homecoming album, inspired by Scottish music, entered the top 20 pop chart.

She returns to the Symphony Hall, Birmingham, on Saturday with a dynamic programme inspired by her father's homeland. It will include Vivaldi's Four Seasons and Tchaikovsky's Souvenir de Florence. Tickets start at £20 for Saturday's concert, see www.thsh.co.uk or call 0121 345 0600.

Nostalgic string of rock and pop gigs

THERE'S a strong hint of nostalgia on the gig scene.

Scottish rockers Big Country, with Simon Hough taking over from the late Stuart Adamson on vocals, are at Bilston's Robin 2 tomorrow (Fri) and Liverpool's The Christians team up with Cuddly Toy rocker Andrew Roachford at the Wulfrun Hall on Saturday. That's the same night The Bluetones play the O2 Academy in Birmingham.

Jazz singer Diana Krall is at the Symphony Hall on Monday, the same night guitar great Albert Lee and Ralph McTell play Birmingham Town Hall. Cliff Richard has sold out his Symphony Hall concert on Tuesday celebrating his 75th birthday.

Ex-Casualty stars in Shawshank play

POPULAR TV actor Ian Kelsey returns to the stage in a play based on a novella by US master of macabre Stephen King.

The former Casualty and Blue Murder star joins fellow former Casualty actor Patrick Robinson in The Shawshank Redemption, a story about friendship and hope in a prison. It was also made into a movie.

It is staged at Birmingham's New Alexandra Theatre from Monday to Saturday. Kelsey plays lifer Andy Dufresne and Strictly Come Dancing finalist Robinson plays prison fixer Ellis 'Red' Redding. See www.atktickets.com/Birmingham or call 0844 871 3011.

Swan Lake marks silver anniversary

BIRMINGHAM Royal Ballet begins its 25th anniversary season at Birmingham Hippodrome by performing the most popular of all ballets, Swan Lake.

The company, which made its move from London to Birmingham in 1990, will feature an ensemble of 50 dancers, a sinfonia of 60 musicians performing Tchaikovsky's score, plus Gothic sets and opulent costumes for this romantic blockbuster. It will be staged from Monday, September 28, to Tuesday, October 6.

The city's premiere of First Steps: A Child's Swan Lake, created for families and young children, is on October 2 at 1pm.

The spice is right at restaurant housed in former city nightclub

IT'S no secret that Birmingham has more than its fair share of Indian restaurants.

So to stand the test of time, you've really got to offer something different – as well as pull the diners in.

I consider myself a massive fan of Indian food, but I always go to the same place and choose my favourite dish each time.

I'm almost nervous to try something. And I'm not a fan of 'fancy' curry houses. I love old, traditional, basic food, that comes in a balti dish and costs less than a tenner for a full meal. And where I can take my own wine.

Every now and then, though, it's nice to get dressed up and splash out a bit, so with that in mind I headed to Akbar's on Hagley Road. I first visited when it opened back in 2009 and judging by how my recent visit, it is as popular as ever.

By Lisa Wright

Those old enough to remember will know it as the former Liberty's nightclub. Younger readers will know it as the big white building next door to TGI Friday's.

The venue underwent a massive transformation when it opened, and it appeared to have lost none of its sparkle on my recent visit.

We ordered a bottle of Malbec and made ourselves comfy while we waited for our table which we were told could be up to 45 minutes. But much to our delight, our table was ready in 15 minutes.

There was almost a party atmosphere inside, with a real feeling of celebration being enjoyed by the other diners, so with it being so busy, I was worried that service would suffer. However, we were really well looked after. The starter menu has all the usual favourites, but there were also plenty of what I'd describe as more unusual dishes. Take for example the liver tikka and the rabbit tikka which comes served with a strawberry chutney.

Tempting options included the chicken wings, seasoned with spices in a yogurt marinade and cooked over charcoal. The keema and cheese samosas – minced lamb with onions and sweetcorn in pastry – also sounded right up my street. But in the end, we played it safe and went for poppadoms and the onion bhaji.

The poppadoms were crunchy and crisp, exactly what you want, while the bhaji, made with onion and potato, was again very tasty. It came in a light batter that wasn't too heavy, while the raita was creamy and cool, the perfect accompaniment.

We also chose our favourites for main courses – chicken dhansak and chicken tikka makhani. I'd hoped for a sweet and sour flavour sauce with my dhansak, but in all honesty it felt a bit flat. Rather than lots of meat, I felt the dish was loaded down with lentils and sweetcorn. The flavour was good, and I mopped up the sauce with a naan bread, but if I was to order it again, I definitely wouldn't expect to see so much sweetcorn.

There was better luck for my friend whose chicken tikka makhani was thoroughly enjoyed. The sauce was mild and creamy and given a massive thumbs-up. The accompanying pilau rice was spot on, with the grains all delightfully fluffy and separated.

I enjoyed the experience at Akbar's. I'd probably go for a different main course next time, but my choice wouldn't stop me from going back.

Strictly Come Dancing (BBC1, 6.15pm)
Following last night's first live edition, in which the first six celebrity hoofers made their dance-floor debuts – not counting the group number they all exuberantly threw themselves into in the launch show earlier this month – Tess Daly and Claudia Winkleman introduce the nine celebrities who have been patiently waiting in the wings, ready to show off what they've learned in the rehearsal room – or not, in the case of any potential John Sergeants and Ann Widdecombes. With no public vote or elimination this weekend, the scores given by judges Len Goodman, Bruno Tonioli, Craig Revel Horwood and Darcey Bussell are carried over to next week, when the first couple will leave the competition.

England v Wales (Kick-off 8.00pm). Coverage of the Pool A encounter at Twickenham, where the old rivals meet in arguably the most eagerly awaited fixture of the pool stage. Since the draw was made, this pool has been regarded as by far the toughest, with Australia also involved, due to the Welsh being seeded ninth at the time and therefore regarded as one of the third tier of nations. However, their recent record against England shows there is little to call between the nations, and Stuart Lancaster's men will be delighted to have the benefit of home advantage, with Wales playing here in both of their key fixtures in the pool. There is little love lost between the two, and England will be looking for a third successive victory over Warren Gatland's side, having beaten their opponents in the Six Nations in Cardiff in February in their last encounter. While qualifying for the quarter-finals is the initial aim, there is also an incentive to finish top of the pool and secure a potential route to the final that is expected to avoid defending champions and favourites New Zealand. 10.20 Through the Keyhole. Trustees required
Age Concern Stourbridge & Halesowen Charity

Age Concern Stourbridge & Halesowen is a registered charity that enjoys a long-standing reputation for offering a range of services within the Dudley borough for the elderly, helping them to make the most of later life. We are proud to be a local charity for local people.

The Charity faces a challenging future as it prepares for the impact of cut-backs in funding from the local authority.

We are seeking to appoint new Trustees with the skills to support the Board in managing the strategic changes required. Expertise in the areas of Finance, HR and Fundraising would be particularly useful, as well as an enthusiasm and commitment for service to the community.

Appointments are usually for three years with a commitment of between six to twelve days a year to attend Board and Sub-Committee meetings. Trustees are unpaid but may be reimbursed for reasonable out of pocket expenses.

CVs and a covering letter in MS Word format should be submitted by e-mail please to dionnelegge@acstourbridge.plus.com.

Closing date: 12 noon on 9th October 2015

Interviews will be held towards the end of October.

Thomas Turgoose

This Is England '90 (Channel 4, 9pm)
Life begins to take a darker turn as autumn draws in and honesty, loyalty and forgiveness are tested to the limit among the group of young friends in the penultimate episode of Shane Meadows' 1990-set drama. Lol finds herself confronted with a seemingly impossible task and is forced to face up to some uncomfortable truths. Kelly continues on her downward spiral, while Shaun escapes the troubles of the present with a trip down memory lane. Starring Vicky McClure, Thomas Turgoose, Chanel Cresswell, Andrew Ellis, Andrew Shim, Billy Braithwaite, Danielle Watson and Helen Behan.

Thriller sequel, starring Vin Diesel, Paul Walker and Jordana Brewster. (2009)

Carol plays host to the heroes of the Nation

Have your hankies at the ready because one of the most moving ceremonies of the year is with us again.

Of course, Carol Vorderman is no stranger to The Pride of Britain Awards, but she admits they don't get any easier to host after all these years.

"It's a massive show to do, the volume that you have to learn and hold and you have to get the tone right," she explains.

"It's a massive show for one person to do so I'm exhausted by the end of it, absolutely drained. But I'm also on a high. Then when I watch it, that's when the emotion comes out."

Now in its 17th year, the star-studded gala at London's Grosvenor House Hotel will be packed with uplifting and moving stories of courage, selflessness and achievement against the odds.

Carol admits she's rather proud to be involved once more.

"I've been part of it for so long now, ever since it started 17 years ago. I'm not just someone who is brought in on the night, I've lived it and breathed it."

Is there any winner that stood out for her?

"There have been loads really. The saddest ones are the children who have been ill and then have either raised a lot of money for charity or done something remarkable and then get ill again and are no longer with us and that's really hard, it really knocks it home."

One of the reasons the shows works so well each year is the fact Carol and the winners get to know each other with a big dinner the night before.

"Because everybody travels down to London from all over the country, it's the first time they have met each other and we introduce them all."

"I try to sit and talk with everybody and at the end of the dinner I go through all of their stories, and what's remarkable is every single one of them turns around and says 'I shouldn't be here, I'm not worthy.' They are so modest. They get great strength from meeting each other before too."

One of the most poignant prizes of last year was the first posthumous award in honour of Stephen Sutton, the blogger and activist who spent his final days raising money for the Teenage Cancer Trust.

"I remember we pushed his fundraising over the £5million mark on the night," recalls Carol. "But it's not just about people who have been ill. The lifetime achievement awards are for ordinary people that we wouldn't read about in normal Press, but they have done these remarkable things; they aren't celebrity driven or media driven or anything, and the person who has won that this year is astonishing."

Carol admits plenty of winners made her cry this year.

"One in particular, it was one of the Children of Courage winners. We saw some film at the judging panel. When you read a story it's not the same as seeing it and what this little boy did was extraordinary – I blubbed."

BEST OF THE REST

Doc Martin, ITV, 9pm
Louisa and Martin have their first therapy session together – though neither of them was expecting they would be given homework – while Morwenna is not happy about it when a teenager on work experience starts trying to boss her around in the surgery. Mrs Tishell is surprised when her husband Clive returns and tells her he wants to give things another go, and Louisa has to call Martin when one of her pupils collapses during a school excursion.

TUESDAY
Britain's Biggest Adventures with Bear Grylls, ITV, 9pm
He's trekked around Snowdonia in North Wales and explored the Yorkshire Dales – now Bear Grylls goes north of the border to the Scottish Highlands on an adventure that takes him from the deepest point in Britain to its highest mountain, Ben Nevis. Along the way he goes in search of freshwater pearl mussels, one of the most endangered species in the world, heads for the hills to discover how the country's magnificent highlands were formed and hears about a plan to save an ancient forest under threat because the native Scots pine has been over-run by a non-native species.

THURSDAY
Who Do You Think You Are?, BBC1, 9pm
Anita Rani makes her second BBC One appearance of the week, although unlike her Strictly Come Dancing performance, this delve into her family's past proves to be a much more sobering affair. Anita never met her maternal grandfather Sant Singh, but she knows he had another wife and family before meeting her grandmother – and that he suffered terrible tragedy at the time of India's Partition. Here the broadcaster travels to India to see if she can find out more about his first family and what happened to them.

WEDNESDAY
All Star Mr & Mrs, ITV, 8pm
The honeymoon period might be over for another three couples as Phillip Schofield returns to test their knowledge of each other's likes, dislikes and habits. First up are former Corrie actor Jimi Mistry and his wife, one-time Strictly Come Dancing dancer Flavia Cacace-Mistry, tennis legend Martina

Doctor Foster, BBC1, 9pm
After the revelation that those around her are also holding onto secrets, Gemma throws herself into a new start with her husband. However, when the respected senior GP discovers that someone is out to get her on a professional level, she must steel herself as the pressure begins to mount. Simon appears to be supportive of her, but she needs to make a decision as to whether or not the man she married is to be trusted. Starring Suranne Jones.

FRIDAY
Have I Got News for You, BBC1, 9pm
New series. Team captains Ian Hislop and Paul Merton bound back for the 50th run of the series, which has been appearing regularly on BBC screens now since 1990. They will find a domestic political climate much changed since the spring, now that the Conservatives have settled into majority government and the Labour opposition has undergone a transformation. But it may prove quite a feat for them and their guest participants to find a humorous edge to many of the current world affairs stories.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer.

1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any
KC documentation, if pedigree.
Whilst Midland News
Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy
Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

Mighty Oak is growing stronger and stronger

When it comes to finding value and high quality used vehicles The Oak Garage at Sterling Park, Merry Hill takes a lot of beating. What's more, the team can provide all this, plus a customer service experience that will entice you back again when it's time to replace your car.

The Oak Garage is a 40-year-old family business well known for its quality used ex-mobility cars. Since its move two years ago, the business has gone from strength to strength, most likely because of the personal service that the team provides to customers, and the quality of the vehicles on offer.

There is always 50 vehicles at Merry Hill for you to view, and consistently the company has access to 1,200 one owner cars with full service history, available to view online.

Many are still covered by the manufacturer's warranty and come with less than 10,000 miles.

Most of these ex-mobility cars are available within 48 hours, and the supply of automatics is a speciality.

The Oak Garage has opened a new sales area, on the Pedmore Road, next to the traffic lights at Merry Hill, with plenty of parking on Sterling Park next to the office.

For this autumn, they are opening their new indoor showroom and office at Sterling Park, helping you to look around selected cars in comfort.

As the winter months approach many of the cars will be displayed indoors and you'll even get a welcome cup of tea or coffee.

In February this year, the business opened a promotional stand in the Cornbow Shopping Centre at Halesowen, where one of the very low mileage cars is always displayed for all to see. This always creates interest and the promotion has proved to be very successful. The stand is usually attended by one of the sales staff who will be more than happy to chat to you, and advise on all the options.

If you are looking for that special wheel chair access vehicle, pay The Oak Garage a visit.

Purpose-built vehicles complete with ramp and winch, are available within 48 hours. These can range from the simple wheel chair access car to a more complex people carrier.

Friendly staff at The Oak Garage are always on hand to help you choose the right car to match your lifestyle needs,

Friendly staff at The Oak Garage are always on hand to help you choose the right car to match your lifestyle needs

whether its an automatic, diesel, an MPV or hatchback.

The Oak Garage will give you the best possible price for your part-exchange, and if you have two cars that you would like to exchange there's no problem.

Hire purchase facilities are available at preferential rates. Personal contract packages are also available that allow you the benefit of a nearly new car over a period of three years. At the end of the agreement you simply hand the car back and take a new car or pay the residual value. It's your choice and your finance package can be tailored to your personal needs.

All cars are checked for safety and carry an MoT. The Oak Garage's after sales is second to none, with 12-month or 24-month warranties being available. Service plans can also be provided to help spread the cost of future maintenance.

For more details and to see cars online visit www.oakgarage.co.uk Best of all, visit The Oak Garage's impressive new showroom at Units 1-2 Sterling Park, Merry Hill, DY5 1TB. Alternatively call 01384 75097 for further details.

Fuss-free Lexus NX300H

By Matt Joy

Even the thrills of more glamorous machinery can't dull the appeal of the hybrid Lexus.

I won't pretend for a second that motoring journalists aren't a spoilt lot. Even if cars don't do much for you, the idea of having a spanking-new motor on the driveway, paid for by someone else, has to be at least slightly appealing. But you may be surprised to learn that supercars aren't necessarily the last word in pleasure.

KFC (as the NX300h has come to be known) has delivered me safely and comfortably to various parts of the country, on several occasions in order to drive something considerably faster and more expensive; in one instance a car capable of over 200mph and costing more than £250,000.

You'd be forgiven for thinking then that climbing into the four-cylinder hybrid Lexus with its CVT gearbox and modest 112mph top speed would be a bigger comedown than January 1st 2000. But the reality is quite different.

It starts before you even climb aboard. With the small fob in your pocket, the keyless entry works seamlessly – a timesaver rather than pointless tech – and you just climb aboard and get comfortable without fuss.

Prod the starter button and the Lexus slips into electric mode straight away, which has proved a handy means of not waking up the neighbours when heading for the airport at 4am.

Starting at that time of day is never a pleasure, but the Lexus does a fine job of making life as easy as possible.

The essential large takeaway coffee sits happily in the cupholders, the low noise levels prevent issues with my sensitive early-morning brain and the radar cruise control is a motorway essential; it shares the workload of M-way drudgery with you and definitely leaves you feeling less tired than journeys without it.

It even manages to deal with the horrors of three moaning children in the back. Being able to recline the rear seat backs in a 60/40 split has come in handy on such occasions, namely to encourage the little darlings to go to sleep on long journeys rather than asking how long it is until we get there.

The leather seats have also done a fine job of repulsing whatever nightmarish combination of foodstuffs they see fit to redistribute, and a quick run over with the vacuum cleaner puts it right. I'd never have a car with cloth seats again, at least not until they've all turned 18.

I'm also convinced the NX300h has loosened up a little, as it seems to be ever more willing and able to deliver indicated fuel consumption well into the 40mpg region. I've yet to give it the full-on eco test run to the office and back, but as it's still two weeks until pay day, there's a good chance that will happen soon.

Sure, I'll never turn down a blat in a pricey supercar should the opportunity arise, but KFC's charms are increasingly welcome and prove the perfect antidote to the hustle and bustle of the real world. Unless you live on a desert island, that's a pretty useful thing to have.

Ceremony caps off the season for track riders

THE track season at Halesowen finished with the annual awards.

In the freewheeler category (for the youngest riders where a track bike is not needed) Alex Brown finished on top ahead of Ellie Swingell (first girl) and Tomos Pattinson.

Massimo Di Vito took overall honours in Youth A, closely followed by the Liam Allen and Ryan Brookes.

Youth 2 saw Alex Barker as winner followed by Nathan Burns and Joseph Brookes with Molly Lewis winning first girl.

In the senior categories the younger riders dominated with Charles Walker,leading the way winning the series overall along with the sprinter's title and the junior title. Luke Hardman took second spot and professional Jacob Tipper completed the podium.

In the sprinter's league, Oliver Dighton took second overall with Jacob in third.

The women's category was won by Emma Grayson, Nick Crutchley took the honours in the B league and William Fotheringham in the Vets League.

Cyclo Cross Racing (CX)

As the track season comes to an end the cyclo cross season starts.

Approximately 50 riders from Halesowen Athletic and Cycling Club have taken part in the events with some highly placed in the league.

The pick of the bunch are Ella Harris in fourth in the U8s, Alex Barker in 3rd in the U12s, Simon Wylie running second in the U14s boys and Jamieson Blain in 5th in the U16s boys. In the adults the stand outs so far are Matthew Worrallo and Ceris Styler.

Tividale are anchored at league bottom

Lincoln United 4 Tividale 0

TIVIDALE remain rock-bottom of the Evo-Stik Division One South after going down 4-0 at Lincoln United.

The home side took the lead after just 14 minutes when Tividale gave away a needless free-kick on the edge of the box and Lincoln wide man Paul Grimes fired the ball in.

On 41 minutes Lincoln doubled their score. Andrew Hutchinson's perfectly placed shot just grazed the inside of the post on its way into the net.

On 83 minutes it was deja vu when skipper Philip Male was harshly judged to have given away a free-kick on the edge of the box and Daniel Brookes stepped up and his shot again arrowed into Christopher Jay's bottom right-hand corner.

Kallum Smith to netted a fourth.

Squad take champion's scalp

Luctonians 2nds 40 Old Halesonians 2nds 45

OLD Hales 2nds had a tremendous league victory against last season's League Champions.

After three league wins this season Old Hales 2nds lead Division 1 of the Midlands Reserve League.

Tries were scored by Leon Naif, Mike Topping, Sam Vaughan, Jake Shellis and Sam Foster scored two tries. Old Hales were also awarded a Penalty Try. Sam Vaughan converted five of the seven tries.

OH 3rds 55 Kidderminster 2nds 14

The planned game against Droitwich 2nds was rearranged at the request of Droitwich and Old Hales managed to pick up a friendly game against Kidderminster 2nds late in the week.

The first 10 minutes of the game were evenly balanced with both sides having good attacking opportunities.

The deadlock was broken when Old Hales were awarded a penalty ten metres from the Kiddy line.

The ball was moved swiftly out to the left for Alex Herbert to score in the corner.

The next 30 minutes were closely fought with both sides striving to gain the upper hand.

Old Hales were dominant in the scrum and from a Kiddy 'put in' gained possession.

Quick passing to the right released wing Callum Roberts on the halfway line; Roberts put in a great effort to evade the Kiddy defence to score.

The conversion was unsuccessful and the whistle blew for a half time score of 10-0.

Old Hales started the second half positively and after only three minutes the backs showed lovely hands to get the ball out to Phil Jukes who provided a well timed pass to Callum Roberts, who once again stepped on the gas to score a second long-range try.

The home sided were now in command and after a strong run into the Kiddy half followed by several good phases of play, Jay Martin took the ball five metres out and powered his way to the line. Mark Wakefield added the conversion.

Bridgnorth 3rds 45 Old Halesonians 4ths12

Derek Hill at age of 70 played a full game.

Old Hales show total dominance

Old Halesonians 1st 41 Old Northamptonians 3

HALES were prepared for their first home game having beaten Nuneaton and Syston in their first two difficult away fixtures.

The scene was set with great weather and pitch conditions and an expectant crowd.

The home side started strong but were over exuberant and after four minutes were penalised, the visitors converted to lead by three.

This was to be the last points for Old Norths as Hales started to dominate.

The pack led by skipper Rich Taylor took control in the scrummage with his fellow front row, prop Louis Padian and hooker Sam Jones. Early pressure resulted in a penalty which Chris Hooper converted.

Hales then put pressure on the visitors with strong running from Tom King, Max McFarlane, Tom Jordan and new boy Guy Field. Dave Hadkiss orchestrated from nine and stand off Oli Rayner distributed well on his first outing for the club.

After 17 minutes Hadkiss fed Rayner to Ben Barkley in the centre to Carl Robinson and inside to wing Luke Smith who sprinted through the opposition backs. He fed Joe Oxford on the wing who drove into his opposite man, supported by Carl Robinson scored, Hooper converted.

Initiative

This gave Hales the upper hand and they took the initiative with some great passages of play. A line out in the opposition 22 resulted in another clean catch by King from Jones's throw and a driving maul.

After pressure by Tom Jordan and Owen Jones towards the line, Guy Field took the final drive for a well deserved try to lead 15-3 after 26 minutes.

From the restart Hales were back on the attack and another driving maul which Owen Jones took over for a try, converted by Hooper 2-3 at half time.

The second half saw changes for Hales, prop Matt Young on for Padian and Andy Robinson on for his brother Carl to partner Barkley in the centres. Possession again to the home side, inter-play with Hooper, Barkley and Smith resulted in Robinson driving for the line and reaching for a great try, again converted by Hooper.

Owen Jones in the thick of the action during the match against Old Northamptonians

The visitors tried to respond but in all areas they were overcome by the power of the home side. The Hales scrum was solid, Young showing great continued promise on the loose head and the pack were totally dominant.

On 46mins a try by Tom King was converted by Hooper.

Again the visitors came back but the Hales defence was secure. After 60mins the pack provided more ball for Hadkiss to move through Rayner, Barkley and Hooper to Andy Robinson. Luke smith had been threatening all day and he out sprinted the defence to score.

DOR Gary Cox used his replacements with Sol Rogers making his debut on for Jordan and Carl Robinson back on for Barkley to partner his brother Andy in the centre. .

This week the First face Peterborough, KO off 2 pm.

Swimmers defend the trophy for sixth time

SWIMMERS from Halesowen Swimming Club travelled to Braunstone for the annual trophy gala on Saturday.

The club was defending the trophy and were hoping to make it six wins in a row. After 10 events Halesowen were in joint first place with Braunstone A.

After 30 events Halesowen had surged ahead on 201 points to Branunstone's 189, but was short lived and Braunstone went into the lead.

Halesowen swimmers won the last four relay events, winning the gala and lifting the trophy for the sixth time in six years.

Double event winners were Josh Bradley in the 100m individual medley and 100m breastroke, Kate Morrice in the 100m butterfly and 100m freestyle, and Niamh Larkin in the 50m backstroke and 50 breaststroke.

Other individual winners were Jacob Bailey in the 50m backstroke, Olivia Jay, Amber Harrison, Robert Jennings and Callum Tinsdale in the 100m backstroke, Lily Merrell in the 100m breaststroke and Chloe Finch in the 100m freestyle.

The relay teams were strong winning 8 of the 16 relay events and included Olivia Jay, Georgia Lees, Emma Osbourne, Lauren Hill, Emily Jay, Emma Bird, Isobel Bowers, India Hanke, Jacob Darby, Mark Laing, Jakob Baker, James Cuthbert and Jack Simpson.

Final point scores were Halesowen - 329, Braunstone A - 323, Melton Mowbray - 250, Hinckley - 240, Market Harborough - 216, Coalville - 177, Witney & District - 146, and Braunstone B - 116.

Plenty for DK runners to get stuck into

THERE were plenty of races for athletes from Dudley Kingswinford Running Club to feast on at the weekend.

The first was at Sutton Park for the Midlands Counties Road Relays with DK fielding a ladies and two men's teams in an regional championship event that attracted clubs from Stoke to the north, Nottingham to the east, Shrewsbury to the west and as far south as North Devon.

With the ladies going off first over the 4 x 4.315km course the team of Carol Fisher, Charlotte Tonks, Lisa Newell and Rebecca Warren finished in a total time of 1.27.58 to take 64th place of the 79 teams.

In the men's event over six legs at the slightly longer distance of 5.848km the A team of Ben Foster, Matt Biggs, James Wright, Darran Bishop, Dave Norman and Simon Hughes came home in a total time of 2.10.16 in 39th.

The B team of Graham Wildgoose, Simon Blizzard, Mark Homer, Richard Tonks, Kieran Pitt and Pete Hood finished in 66th in 2.28.49 from 84 teams with Notts AC, Tipton Harriers and Cheltenham and County Harriers filing the medal positions.

Twenty four hours later a group of hoops lined up with international class athletes and European and Commonwealth medalist Jo Pavey in the Worcester 10k.

Craig Brown was first DK runner home in 38th in a chip time of 38.13, Simon Blizzard having doubled up over the weekend was 113th in 41.22, Liz Hettle was 292nd in 45.41, Kathryn Sneyd was 424th in 48.07, Lyn Sprague was 485th in 48.53, Sarah Cox finished in 53.33 in 914th, Dave Ede was 1094th in 56.08 and Baljit Watson the same time.

Gornal high five adds more woes for old foes Town

Gornal A 5 Tipton Town 1

HIGH-FLYING Gornal Athletic ensured there was no upset at the Garden Walk Stadium with a 5-1 demolition of old foes Tipton Town in the West Midlands Premier Division.

The visitors have had a calamitous start to the season with only one point from 10 games.

The home side powered ahead in the ninth minute through Luke Guy.

After a couple of scares Tipton fought back and were unlucky when, in the 17th minute Marvin Whitter's chip-shot seemed certain to tie up the scores until home skipper Matt Vaughan cleared.

Tipton were gradually coming into the picture and Matt Holland's strike from 25 yards equalised.

On 50 minutes, Gornal regained the initiative through a Danny Ludlow goal, and Ben Streeton hit a third from 25 yards four minutes later.

Substitute Liam Morris weaved his way through a beleaguered Tipton defence to put Gornal 4-1 to the good after 71 minutes and Danny Crudgington completed the scoring.

Victory for DK adds to Walsall's woes

Dudley Kingswinford 46 Walsall 12

ALTHOUGH DK handed Walsall another defeat, the visiting team showed a significant improvement in several areas of their game.

Tries by Connah Jones and Rob Phillips with Kieran Pinches kicking a conversion and two penalties gave DK an 18-0 interval lead. But Walsall were far more competitive during the second half.

Indeed, a 60 metre break out of defence involving Andy Fitzgerald, Chris Mould and Dave Pitt should have resulted in a score.

But the hosts set up a counter attack which resulted in Stefan Shillingford going over near the posts. Walsall did gain the next score after Mould put centre Richard Clarke away on a 40 metre run before finding John Josh Williams in support to go over for the try.

Rugby

Five minutes later it was a similar situation as Williams cut through and then found Pitt in support.

The Walsall winger outpaced the chasers and scored wide out.

But in scoring the try he sustained a leg injury and has now joined the ever growing group of injured Walsall players. The visitors were pressing again and were having far more control of the game. The crucial score came a few minutes later.

Captain Neil Pittaway made a break, he was well supported by Fitzgerald, Benson, Weaver and the Walsall backs.

The final pass would have resulted in a certain try, but the pass was intercepted and winger Nicholas Adams raced 90 metres for the try.

The visitors tried to mount further attacks but it was DK that got the final scores as they ran with the ball at every opportunity.

Matthew Squire and Danny Hawkins going over for try apiece. Pinches added the extras.

The games don't get any easier for Walsall.

HALES FIRST IS YELTZ FOURTH

Halesowen Town 1 Marine 0

HALESOWEN recorded a fourth victory with on-loan Reece Hales claiming his first goal for the winner.

Marine created the best chance within the first minute but home goalkeeper Dan Platt made a fine reflex save from Chad Whyte after James Short delivered a great cross.

The Mariners continued to look lively, especially down the left flank, and Menagh's cross was scuffed just wide by Whyte.

Greg Pearson earned Halesowen's first corner in the 14th minute and another in the 17th resulted in visiting goalkeeper Matty Cooper finally gathering after Asa Charlton's header was initially cleared.

A low shot from Pearson fell just wide but in-form Marine ended the first half on top as a 25-yard, low, raking shot from Lewis Codling was gathered by Platt.

Marine's neat football continued to come up against a solid wall of Yeltz defenders early in the second half, although Codling fired just wide of Platt's post after trying his luck with a long range effort.

Hales hit Halesowen's winner beyond the Marine defensive wall and into the bottom corner of the net directly from a low 22 yard free-kick after 61 minutes.

The Mariners wasted a golden chance to level after 72 minutes when a short back-pass from Rob Elvins left Andy Owens with just goalkeeper Platt to beat, but Platt made a fine blocking save.

Frickley Athletic 1 Halesowen 2

Two goals in the last 10 minutes from Keyen Raffel saw Halesowen come from behind in Yorkshire to get their third win in a row.

Raffel has now scored three goals since he joined the club on loan from Kidderminster Harriers.

The first half was even, with the teams only separated by a strike from Jacob Hazel in the 34th minute for Frickley.

Gradually Halesowen found their way into the game and Raffel reduced the lead on 84 minutes before scoring the winner three minutes later with a great strike.

Wolves fall again to Boro curse

James Henry of Wolverhampton Wanderers and Adam Reach of Middlesbrough

Middlesbrough 3 Wolves 0

NONE of the players on show at the Riverside had been born the last time Wolves won away at Middlesbrough.

Neither had Kenny Jackett. In fact Steve Morgan and Jez Moxey hadn't either, such is the quite incomprehensibly rotten record Wolves have in this particular part of the north east.

And if Wolves don't break the hoodoo when they return to the Riverside in March in the Championship, you wonder how many of the above will still be at Wolves when the run, currently at 24 winless matches in 64 years, finally ends. Defensive mistakes, once more, littered this Wolves performance, with opposition players left unmarked at crucial moments and Ethan Ebanks-Landell dropping a howler for the opening goal.

Jackett made nine changes from the side that drew 0-0 with Brighton, many enforced with a host of players injured.

On 37 minutes Boro took a deserved lead when Ebanks-Landell got in a right muddle and scuffed the ball into Adomah's path. And it was no surprise when the home side doubled their lead with Fabbriani lashing past Ikeme from 15 yards on 57 minutes.

Boro finished it through Adomah.

TD succumb to second half fury

WEM Town 2 Team Dudley 1

The third of five consecutive away trips saw The Students heading Shrewsbury way for a match against Wem at Butler Sports Centre.

TD travelled with injuries and suspensions taking their toll as Nathan Jones and Liam McEvoy were named on the bench despite not being fully fit, the loss of James Hawthorne to suspension saw Steve Whitehouse take the armband.

With Kyle Green injured and Liam Jones completing his FA Goalkeeping course Marc Lawrence stepped between the sticks. He was tested early doors by a Darren France strike.

Steve Whitehouse fired low and hard into the bottom corner for TD.

Within four minutes of the restart Wem were level as Matty Owen scored, the goal came with controversy as Wem broke from a foul on Sam Lea in the penalty area, the penalty was waved away despite the midfielder in agony in the box, the counter was seemingly stalled but Owen lunged in on Alex Pinches with a studs-showing move the ball then bounced beyond Lawrence and into the corner.

Wem then took the lead just before the hour mark as Jack Clements whipped in a cross. It was met by Shane Owen's, unchallenged, head and that diverted the ball past Lawrence as TD found Wem's high intensity start to the half tough to deal with.

TD struggled to find openings from then on it and keeping possession was made harder with Wem constantly in the faces of the Students forcing mistakes and the final chance fell to the home side as Sean Butler saw his shot high across goal tipped over by Lawrence who did a sterling job as stand in.

Barbarians are still looking for first win

BIRMINGHAM Barbarians rugby club are still searching for their first win of the season after losing out 31-12 to Rugeley II in an absorbing Merit Table clash at their Moor Lane HQ.

A young and inexperienced Barbarians side started strongly but it was the visitors who drew first blood with two early tries.

Leon Robinson got the hosts back in it as the No.8 touched down under the posts. Kirk McWee converted.

Rugeley notched a third try just before the break to lead 19-7 at half-time.

Two further tries from the visitors killed off any Barbarians' comeback.
